HandStands Continues Product Safety Leadership, Early Adopter of Industry's 'Product Safety Aware' Compliance Program

Salt Lake City, UT Feb 9, 2015 – HandStands www.HandStandsPROMO.com, today announced it is among the first to achieve 'Product Safety Aware' status in the Promotional Products Association International (PPAI) Product Safety Awareness Program. This means HandStands has met or exceeded the PPAI product safety training and education requirements.

HandStands has demonstrated its commitment to product safety by actively engaging its workforce and adopting a corporate culture prioritizing product safety compliance training and a commitment to continuing education.

Bryce Haymond, HandStands Product Manager/Designer, said, "We ensure that all of our products meet or exceed product safety and regulatory compliance." Haymond continued by saying, "We work directly and regularly with third-party certified labs to ensure the compliance of our products."

PPAI, founded in 1903, has a long history of leadership in the development of training and education programs meant to enhance safety programs in the promotional products industry. The Association is the world's largest and oldest not-for-profit trade association for the $18.5 billion promotional products industry and is the leading provider of promotional products safety and compliance training and education with more than 50-years of professional development and certification.
