

RHOMBUS

by Satchman

RHOMBUS CANVAS was conceived and founded by a passionate team with years of experience in the industry. We wanted to bring a fresh approach to canvas products, incorporating the simple utility and function of canvas into a set of stylish and beautiful products.

It's why we chose the name Rhombus: taking something familiar and simple, like a four-sided shape, and remaking it as something new and surprising, like the elegant shape of a rhombus.

We think you'll love this collection as much as we do.

STITCHMAN started as an OEM cotton bag manufacturing facility during the early 1990s in Gujarat India. During the initial years it made bags for the promotion industry and over time grew to establish itself as one of the leading canvas bag manufacturers for the global fashion and utility industry. The factory is set up to Global Standards delivering the best quality canvas bags for various requirements; also attaining status of D&B Rated Company and Omega Compliant. “Rhombus” is a new approach powered by Stitchman Inc.— bringing designers, boutique stores and trade buyers to a single platform. Our bags are perfectly suited for embroidery and silkscreen printing, and will impress and please any customer.

Our factory is Omega Compliant and we meet Prop 65 standards
